Description Patches to migrate osmo-msc to use osmo-mgw instead of osmo-bsc_mgcp are going to be merged soon. Actually, the osmo-mgw parts are already merged which affect osmo-bsc and osmo-msc. Until patches for those are merged and we move to osmo-mgw, voice tests are goign to be failing. We can test osmo-msc<->osmo-mgw once the following patches are merged and trials are available: For bsc it is this one: https://gerrit.osmocom.org/#/c/4964/ for MSC it is this one: https://gerrit.osmocom.org/#/c/4980/changes have now been merge to master. feel free to update osmo-gsm-tester.

- Status changed from Stalled to In Progress

As a side note after discussion with dexter, there's no support to run osmo-msc and osmo-bsc against the same osmo-mgw yet. It's actually not needed for osmo-gsm-tester but will be nice for OE NITB setup.

yes, should be possible soon, once MSC also uses wildcard endpoints. The BSC doesn't need any changes but already uses it.
